REPORT NO.

The Burma Communist Party (BCP) "Victory Within Two Years" program envisages three main steps. First, to regain control of about eight districts* before 1952; second, having regained that control, to proclaim the formation of a People's Democratic Government; and third, to consolidate the occupied areas in preparation for extending their control of the country. Once this program has been successfully implemented, the BCP plans to conclude a treaty with Russia and China similar to the Sino-Russian treaty.

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. It is not clear whether the occupation of eight particular districts is intended or whether this is the BCP's estimate of the area they can hope to control initially. Recent reports have suggested the concentration of BCP forces in the Yamethin-Pyima district and to the north. [REDACTED]
